Proclamation.

We, KALAKAUA, by the Grace of God, at the Hawaiian Islands, King,

DO PROCLAIM :

That it is Our pleasure, in presence of the provisions of Our Constitution, that the Members of the Legislative Assembly of Our Kingdom do assemble in the Legislative Hall, at Our Capital of Honolulu, for the dispatch of Public Business, at 12 o'clock M. on THURSDAY, the TWENTY-EIGHT DAY OF APRIL, A. D. Eighteen Hundred and Seventy-four.

Given under Our Royal Sign Manual at Our Palace in the City of Honolulu, this Twenty-eighth day of March, Eighteen Hundred and Seventy-four, and the First Year of Our Reign.

[Signed] KALAKAUA R.
By the King.

The Minister of the Interior.

[Signed] H. M. WHITNEY.

WEDNESDAY, APRIL 22.

THEIR MAJESTIES the King and Queen set out on their tour around Oahu early Monday morning. It was hardly six o'clock when a cascade of perhaps twenty dashed at full speed across the plains of Kalakaua, the royal stand-here with it indicating that their Majesties were there. All the party were dressed in uniform, with white hats or bicornes, red waist and black pants or bloomers, and as they rode along, made a very pretty appearance. Their Majesties took the route to Waimana via Mr. Pio's, our Koko Head, intending to meet the remainder of the party, consisting of His Excellency Gov. Dominis and lady, Hon. Mrs. Cleghorn and others, to the number of twenty-five or thirty, at Kailua, where breakfast was prepared for them on Tuesday morning by Col. Judd.

From that place they were to move on to Kailua or Paiaia, where Messrs. Chan & Co., with other Chinese merchants had invited the royal party to dine and spend the afternoon and night.

Tuesday the party were to lunch at Mr. Justice Hollister's, and proceed to Waialae in the afternoon, where they will spend Thursday at Governor Dominis' residence. On Friday His Majesty will meet the people of Ewa, and return to town on Saturday. The weather could not be more charming for the royal party than it has been—a cool breeze north wind having set in about the time they left the Palace, and continued till this morning.

We have no advice yet whether the parties destined for probably and security increasing small sums of money, bonds of the Hawaiian Government of the several values of $100, $200, $500, and $1,000, bearing interest at the rate of 5 per cent, per annum, payable semi-annually, will be issued at par or at a discount, applying for these at the office of the Minister of Finance, or at least three days.

P. NAKAHARA, Minister of Finance.

Department of Finance, April 2, 1874. 484 fm.

It has pleased His Majesty that King to appoint W. L. Brewster, Esq., Chamberlain of His Household, Queen's Palace, April 2, 1874. 484 fm.

Public School Notice.

They and after the 1st of April, 1874, will be required by the Board of Education as a part of the duty of every Teacher to occupy a department or a Government School in Honolulu, in which the English language is taught, to teach her, and in whose principal all nations shall become one at the end of every term, from each of the public schools, those respective determinations and for the same without delay to the Secretary of the Board at his office.

No exemption from the payment of taxes will be allowed, unless it can be established with the Secretary, conformedly with the Board's determination referred thereto.

All people whose tuition fees shall have fallen in arrears for a whole term, or during the progress of such term, shall be assessed, and shall have been paid up, unless for satisfactory reason it shall be otherwise ordered by the Board of Education, or unless especially provided otherwise provided.

The change for tuition in the First Street School will be fifty cents every week of School, and at the Royal and Palauan Schools, the teacher a year, or $120 per quarter. By order of the Board of Education.

Honolulu, April 12, 1874. W. L. BREWER, Secretary. 484 fm.

In accordance with a resolution of the Board of Education on the 10th day of March, the value of which was transmitted to the Board of Education by the Board of Education, the Board of Education has been changed, and other information will be received as follows:
